We are happy to inform that 16th Indian Veterinary Congress and XXIII Annual Conference of IAAR & National Symposium on “Strengthening of Governance in Animal Health and Production Activities for the Benefit of Farmers and Livestock Owners” will be organized by the Department of Veterinary Clinical Medicine, College of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry, OUAT, Bhubaneswar, from 27th-28th February, 2016. We extend our cordial invitation for your active participation.

VENUE
Temple city Bhubaneswar, the capital of Odisha, is an important Hindu pilgrimage being the seat of Lord Lingaraj. It is also an important destination for Jains and Buddhist pilgrimage. The capital is the educational hub for the entire eastern India. There are many tourist places in and around Bhubaneswar like NandanKanan Zoological park, Khandagiri and Udaygiri caves, Dhauli Supa, Lingaraj Temple, Rajarani Temple, Mukteswar temple, state museum etc. Famous sun temple of Konas, Golden beach and Lord Jagannath temple of Puri are only 70 km & Chilika lake is 100 km away from Bhubaneswar. The venue of the Congress is the College of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry, OUAT is located 3 km from Bhubaneswar railway station and 2 km from Biju Patnaik International Airport, Bhubaneswar. The weather in February is very pleasant and sunny, with temperatures ranging from 25°C to 30°C.

TRANSPORT AND ACCOMMODATION
Arrangement will be made to receive the delegates from the Biju Patnaik International Airport, Bhubaneswar and Bhubaneswar Railway Station. Accommodation shall be provided in the University Guest House & near by hotels (Rs. 600-4000). Prior information for reservation of accommodation will facilitate organizers to extend their best services. Please send your Arrival time, Departure time, Mode of transportation, Trans and Flight no and requirement of accommodation well in advance.
