Plenary Lecturer

Former Secretary General of the United Nations

Ki-moon BAN

August 28 (Mon) 10:00 (Tentative)

Special Program_Global Seminar on Animal Welfare

The World Veterinary Association and World Animal Protection in close collaboration with the Korea Veterinary Medical Association are preparing a Global Seminar on Animal Welfare to take place during the 33rd World Veterinary Congress. The objective of the global seminar on animal welfare is to highlight the importance of animal welfare in the veterinary profession and the challenges, opportunities and potential roles and responsibilities that the science of animal welfare presents to veterinarians. For more details, please click 'Program Details'.

What's On!

VIV ASIA 2017 (Bangkok, Thailand)

Jae-Hong Kim, Chair of Organizing Committee, participated at VIV ASIA 2017 and FAVA-VIV Asia Seminar 2017 from March 15 to 17, 2017. He gave a speech to promote the Congress and attract participants. All attendees were united in wishing for the success of the Congress.

Enjoy Korea!

During the Korean War (the American invasion in 1950), the Gwanpyong Fortress was the fiercest battle ground in Gangwon Province. Korean forces engaged Admiral John Rodgers landed on Gogunsan Island to demand the opening of Korea’s ports and commerce. Although General and sailors were bravely fought to the death against the invading forces.

Quick LINK

Online Registration  Hotel Reservation  Tour Reservation  Mobile APP  Facebook

Deadline of Sponsorship & Exhibition has been extended to May 31, 2017!

Only 50 days left to submit the application form (exhibits@wvc2017korea.com). Don't miss the chance to promote your products and company.

Supported by

Platinum

Diamond

Gold

Sponsored by